ORDER:

In the reference 1st cited, the Director General of Police, Andhra Pradesh has stated that Smt.J.Annamma, W/o. Late J.S.S. She has requested to provide job to her son Sri J.Yaswanth under compassionate grounds. Further, the eldest daughter of deceased i.e., J. Ramya working as Junior Associate (Clerk) in State Bank of India, Warangal of Telangana State since 03.10.2018. After death of the Govt. employee she got married with K.Kranthi Kumar on 15.06.2021 and now they are living separately with her family members at Kazipeta, Warangal of Telangana State and unable to look after the welfare of her mother, sister and brothers. Late HC 266, J.S.S.Ratna Kumar on compassionate grounds, in relaxation of Rules, as it is not feasible for consideration, since the eldest married daughter J.Ramya working as Jr.Associate (Clerk) in SBI, Warangal of Telangana State since 03.10.2018.

4. Smt. Jyothi Annamma, W/o. Late HC 266, J.S.S.Ratna Kumar has filed complaint No.1024/2024/B1 before the Institution of Lokayukta of Andhra Pradesh, Kurnool.

5. In the reference 3rd read above, the Assistant Registrar, Institution of Lokayukta of Andhra Pradesh, Kurnool has informed that the Hon'ble Lokayukta vide Orders dated.22.07.2024 in complaint No.1024/2024/B1 has recommended to consider the request of the complainant for providing suitable employment to her son fulfil the main objective of compassionate scheme on humanitarian grounds and submit a report. The Orders of the Hon'ble Lokayukta are as follows:

> The main grounds for rejecting the compassionate appointment to the dependents of deceased police employee is that his elder daughter is employed in State Bank of India (SBI), Warangal as on the date of his death. The primary object for providing compassionate appointment to the dependents of the deceased is that he/she must support other dependent members of the family. In our society at any point of time, it is difficult for a daughter to support the dependents members of the deceased lifelong, for the reason that she will go to her in-laws house following her husband, soon after her marriage. This circumstance will frustrate very object of compassionate appointment scheme. In the present case, the daughter of the deceased is already married and the same is also mentioned in the report submitted by the Superintendent of Police, Prakasam District. It is quite common that a woman after marriage has no obligation to take care of her parental family and her earnings will be spent for her husband's family. In this case, all the other members of that family would survive only at the mercy of her husband's family.
> Therefore, the Institution of the Hon'ble Lokayukta of A.P., recommends to consider the request of the complainant for providing suitable employment to her son to fulfil the main objective of compassionate scheme on humanitarian grounds and submit a report.

6. After careful examination of the matter, Government hereby accord permission to the Director General of Police, Andhra Pradesh, Mangalagiri to provide employment to Sri J.Yaswanth, S/o. Late J.S.S Ratna Kumar, HC 266, Chirala I Town PS on compassionate grounds, in relaxation of relevant rules, subject to fulfillment of all other conditions as provided in rules.
